We make this sound that's coming around
It's shaking all over the town
We play some beat in the street it's moving your feet
Hypnotizing all you kids

Such a cool time
What we are
Is a fallen star sailing to your arms
Wanna hide ourselves behind
Lying mask keeping us in our shell

We have a boat, we don't know how it floats
But the motor shoots the sweetest notes
We'll be the spark in the dark tryin' so hard
To guide your mind through the misty yard

Such a down time
Drops of lime
Who the hell do you think you are?
Leave this broken plastic lunch
There you only fed your vulnerable self

(1.-) We jump around
We dance the sky
We ride the stars
To sneak out

So many things they used to say...
...That we lost our minds
But we're okay

Jacques Cousteau's life shows us to drive
A zodiac with our lies
We forgot just a thought
Feeling so hot
How to berth it in the dock

Such a down time
Now we are
Fallen stars crashed in our disease
Who the hell do we think we are?
Here we are losing our tangerine trees
