A damnation praised in flames
For whom I could not speak or name
I treasure behold this solitude of night

My blackened soul, forever cold
A damnation burned in black flames
As darkened shadows fall
Shades of black wings clad the sky
Moonlit silver fades in ravens eyes

Woe to this night
A blessing of shadows awaits me
Behold all its glory
As darkness creeps and transforms me

Damned to be, great fallen one
Unleash the storms of wrath
Grant me might by poisoned blade
A legion in one soul

Unbounded by the flames of hate
A beast of fear released
Shadow stalker of the lost worlds
I am to be

As the venom spreads inside
Its chant begins to glow
I travel through the seven worlds
... in awe

Demon of black shadows worn
Come forth as night time falls
Plead the gifts of nightmares born
Abiding sacrifice

Ungodly speaks through me
A legion in one soul
Unforgotten sacrilege, darkness made a king
