I hope there's hell for the good somewhere
I hope there's heaven for the bad somewhere
They still kill in the name of god - who is he?
They spread the word by sword - you must believe

Unchangeable times
Bittersweet times
A standstill of time
The godfearing fear their god
I have never deserted immortal bliss

I am a child of the bliss, you are the child of the bliss, give me a kiss
I don't give a damn about the name of your peaceful mind
You know, the silent sages call it by various names
A child is the father of man through times

Unchangeable times
Bittersweet times
A standstill of time
The godfearing fear their god
I have never deserted immortal bliss

The godfearing fear their god
I have never deserted immortal bliss

The godfearing fear their god
I have never deserted immortal bliss
