Living in a twisted world, living in a twisted world, living in a twisted world,
Deserving a drink in a bar, where nobody else ever wanted to go..
Living in a twisted world, living in a twisted world, living in a twisted world,
Deserving a drink in a bar, where nobody else ever wanted to go..

Hold me, hold me, hold me, hold me - lost in a paradise
Hold me, hold me, hold me, hold me - Adam, Eve and me
Hold me, hold me, hold me, hold me - with money and some lesser gods
Hold me, hold me, hold me, hold me - we're lost in a paradise
Lost in a paradise, so hold me, hold me, hold me, hold me

Hold me, hold me, hold me, hold me..
Hear me, hear me, hear me, hear me..

Hear me calling you
A white bride is dancing on the beach, after midnight
She's a Christian girl in a Christian world and the moon is her groom
The asylum is burning in her hair, it's the first of June, it's the first of June
It's the first of June, let's bloom..

Living in a twisted world, living in a twisted world, living in a twisted world,
Deserving a drink in a bar, where nobody else ever wanted to go..
Living in a twisted world, living in a twisted world, living in a twisted world,
Deserving a drink in a bar, where nobody else ever wanted to go..
Living in a twisted world, living in a twisted world, living in a twisted world,
Deserving a drink in a bar, where nobody else ever wanted to go..
