Welcome to the public ball, there is no outsiders
Welcome to the ball of your life
Choose your partner, choose your steps and don't regret
Welcome to the ball of your life

Hope you never have to dance with dirty people
Hope you never have to dance with me
Hope you never have to dance with greedy ones
Hope you never have to dance with me

'Cause I'm a Vicious Waltz
You'll never be the same
I'm a Vicious Waltz
In a bad ballet

Hope you never have to dance with slaves of lust
Hope you never have to dance with me
Hope you never have to dance with fallen rage
Hope you never have to dance with me

Hope you never have to spend a mellow night
With someone full of envy by your side
Hope you're feeling good, I hope you get your kicks
I'm keen on seeing you dressed in white
Hope you never have to do the deadly dance
In the rhythm of the seven sins

'Cause I'm a Vicious Waltz
You'll never be the same
