This city's under water
Don't ask me how we keep managing to breathe
Under all this water
It's not like us to let our lungs fill up and burst
I can't explain how much this hurts
Just make it stop right...

Now come on This city's under water but we're not dead yet
We're not dead yet

This rain won't stop beating on our heads
Until we give in and listen
To what is said and let it trust
To let our lungs fill up and burst
I can't explain how much this hurts
Just make it stop right...

And you say that you can't go on
But I know you can I know you can, now
Now don't stop swimming We've come so far
We can't stop now, we can't stop now

This city's under water but we're not dead yet
We're not dead yet

Don't ask me how we keep managing just to breathe
