You think you figured it out
A safer place to go
Beyond the realm of skies we know
Do you see what I see?

Go blind by what you've been told
A shameless way to go
Excel your message to the world
Do you see what I see?

You tried and tried but failed and still wonder why
Your alive
You tried and tried but failed and still wonder why?
Run savior savior
And pry the noose
I seek the solomntude
Run savior savior
And tie the noose
I seek the solomntude
I see what's left to choose
I see this all in you

Your reach is furthering down
It soon begins to show
When fallacy is treading home
Do you see what I see?

With nothing more left to hold
Watch it all unfold
Question where it all went wrong
Do you see what I see?

You tried and tried but failed and still wonder why
Your alive
You tried and tried but failed and still wonder why?
Run savior savior
And pry the noose
I seek the solomntude
Run savior savior
And tie the noose
I seek the solomntude
I see what's left to choose

I see this all in you

Towering, rendering, powerless you
You must be kidding me so this is you

(I don't I don't I don't need anybody body I don't I don't I don't)
I need I need I need I need I need

Run savior savior
And pry the noose
I seek the solomntude
Run savior savior
And tie the noos
I seek the solomntude
I see what's left to choose
I see this all in you
