The stains on my shirt
There out of my hands
How can I make this out
Turn it around to make you understand
He wasnt good for you (for you)
I wasnt good for him
How can i make this out
Turn it around to make you understand
You said those things you didnt mean and no one know
but i know he knows
You said those things you didnt mean and no one know
but i know he knows
You wanted you wanted everything but me
You wanted you wanted everything but me
You wanted you wanted everything but me
You wanted you wanted everything but me
Dressed to kill and deep in conversation
Your looks just killed and your filled with my frustration
Will someone make a handbook for the hopeless?
I tell my heart to sing, to sing myself to sleep a thousand words for walking out on me
The seconds dont stop for a heart thats not beating
You said those things you didnt mean and no one know
but i know he knows
You said those things you didnt mean and no one know
but i know he knows
You wanted you wanted everything but me
You wanted you wanted everything but me
You wanted you wanted everything but me
You wanted you wanted everything but me
Put yourself together get out of my car i cant give you away you just keep falling apart on me (FALLING APART)
You wanted you wanted everything but me
You wanted you wanted everything but me
You wanted you wanted everything but me
You wanted you wanted everything but me
I guess ill see you around
I guess ill see you around
I guess ill see you around
I guess ill see you around

I guess ill see you around
I guess ill see you around
I guess ill see you around
I guess ill see YOU
