I came home again to an empty bed
It's 6 a.m. I'm just getting in
The message machine ain't blinking anymore
I had to change it from were not home
To I'm not here leave a message at the tone
While I'm staring at your photo in my hand
I start crying out again
Cause I'm down down on myself again
Tonight the world is fading
Down down on myself again
So meet me here inside my dreams
My dreams
I tried to get away from 9 to 5
I'm trying to get her off of my mind
It's hard to sleep at night I can't decide
If a glass is empty or if it's half full
I don't really care I'm gunna drink it while it's cold
Thinkin about the moments that we had
I start crying out again
Cause I'm down down on myself again
Tonight the world is fading
Down down on myself again
So meet me here inside my dreams
My dreams
Till then
Every night I'll find you there
The photograph can not compare
To the way we were the love we shared
And now it's gone I wish you were here
I'm down on myself again
Tonight the world is
I'm down I'm down on myself again
Tonight the world is fading
Down I'm down I'm on myself again
So leave me here inside my dreams
My dreams
My dreams
