It's a long shot
But I'm sure that you felt something
And I should have seen this coming before
So maybe I will feel this forever
I thought that we were happy together

[Pre-chorus:]
Your word, meant nothing
I see through your disguise
Sight blurred, still bleeding
I failed, but that's no surprise

[Chorus:]
Are you, satisfied?
That you've gone and brought me down?
Now I'll, fade with the tide
As you leave me here to drown

It's a heartbreak,
And I'm just left to wonder
How I let you pull me under, again
So maybe I will feel this forever
I know without you I'm not doing better, better

[Coda:]
I would've given you everything (everything)
I would've given you all of me (all of me)
I would've given you everything (everything)
I would've given you all of me
Everything
Are you satisfied?
All of me (all of me)
Are you satisfied?
You're everything (everything),
Everything (everything)
Everything (everything),
Everything (everything)
I would've given you, all of me
