[Intro:]

Take me as I am
Cause' this is all I have to offer
But pleasure doesn't come with guarantees
Take-me for what it's worth
Cause' this is all that I can give you
But all that I have left are memories

I can't keep fighting for the things that I can't get
Now you're a memory that I can't help but regret

[Pre-chorus 1:]

I wasn't looking for a shattered romance,
I was hoping I could have one last chance
To make it up to you
But tell me is this sacrifice worth the cost
I can't help thinking you're the one who's at loss
But it's just my point of view

[Chorus:]

Are you happy with your choice now, baby?
It's too bad that you had to let me go
All I wanted was someone to save me,
I thought you could, but I guess we'll never know
- I'll make sure you regret what you've done
I'll make sure you admit you were wrong
You were wrong...

Things were great at first, now I'm bracing for the worst
As every second passes by, I wonder if I should even try
So is this what you need? Another excuse to bleed
They're all just scars that never heal, and answers you know can't be Real...
But pleasure doesn't come with guarantees
Now all that I have left are...

[Pre-chorus 2:]

I'm not looking for a shattered romance,
I was hoping I could have one last chance

To make it up to you and you and you and ohÂ...
But tell me is this sacrifice worth the cost
I canÂ't help thinking youÂ're the one whoÂ's at loss
But itÂ's just my point of view Â- oh.

[Bridge 1:]

I guess the time we spent was just a waste
The image of your smile has been erased
Are you better off without me?
Do you ever think about me?
So tell me when you want to let me knowÂ...

[Chorus]

[Intro to Coda 1:]

You were wrong
You were wrong

[Coda 1:]

You were wrong, youÂ'll get what you deserved
You were wrong, your words were meant to hurt
Just admit it, you regret this
Just admit it, that you were wrong

[Coda 2:]

I must confess, I took you for granted
We were such a mess, but now weÂ're stranded

[Coda 3:]

So I guess weÂ've reached the end
WeÂ've come so far
Now I guess IÂ'll just pretendÂ...
WeÂ're alright
WeÂ're alright.
