You got a problem with me personally
So you go and you write about
It your fanzine
Then someone reads it and she likes it and she puts it in hers
And it grows and it grows and it grows
Do you fucking know me
Or are you judging by popular opinion
I think you are
Are you judging
This popularity contest
Is nothing less
Than a set up and I'm fed up
With this shit that your putting through
And I didn't ask for this
You placed it on my shoulders
And I'll give it back to you
This status
I didn't ask for it
