Silje Nergaard - Marlena

Little girl, come here a while and tell me what you keep inside my caring heart will guide you home again you don't have to feel ashamed and you don't have to take the blame come to me and let the tears begin -

Tell it all, Marlena
say what's on your mind
tell it all, Marlena
Leave it all behind

I think I understand, I do Something sad is holding you and now you'r scared to open your door you know your little home inside where you keep your butterflies No one is going to hurt me anymore -

Tell it all, Marlena
tell it all, Marlena mine
tell it all, Marlena
Don't be afraid to cry here in my arms I'm going to hold you till you're smiling -
