Silje Nergaard - The meter's running

Will it raing? Will it shine?
You better make up your mind!
Will we sing? Will we dance?
Let's not take a chance because soon it's too late and we don't have time to wait
The world spinning 'round needs to know

Where' you gonna go - oh -
The meter's running
Time is ticking, so - oh -
the meter's running is it yes or no - oh -
The meter's running

We go up - we go down never can get unwound There's a will and a way but someone's gotta pay - take a break, take ca bow give me your answer now Do you think, do you feel Are you real?

Where' you gonna go - oh -
The meter's running
Time is ticking, so - oh -
the meter's running
so is it yes or no - oh -
The meter's running

You say you feel the ocean rising
You say you don't know where to stand And though you're drowning in the water
You think it's safe to hold my hand -
