Silje Nergaard - Welcome to another day

Come and lay down by my side close your weary eyes let me hold you close, I'll stroke your head till you're sleeping tight it was just one of these days when nothing went your way now the things you did and said keep wirling around my head

Welcome to another day
a brand new hand of cards to play
sleep will dry your tears away Things will be alright -

All the things you tried to do they didn't turn out the way they should now you feel so bad you're so misunderstood

sleep will dry your tears away
