It's thirty hour drive from home
Think I'd feel so alone
That couldn't be less true

Family traveling by my side
Lifeline friends we can't deny
See the world with you

Here today, gone tomorrow
We're saying our goodbyes
Drive away from the past

Don't be sad, don't feel sorrow
The memories in our hearts
I won't forget

An icy road with no remorse
A metal box drifting off course
Is taking everything

I can't believe we lost you
I can't feel any worse now
This must be a dream
When will someone wake me?

Here today, gone tomorrow
We're saying our goodbyes
Drive away from the past

Don't be sad, don't feel sorrow
The memories in our hearts
I won't forget

I won't forget
(It's in our hearts, it's in our hearts)
I won't forget

All my life, I've never felt so strong
As when we're all together
All my days, I've never felt so powerless
When you were taken away

There's no one in this world
With so much love and so much passion
We'll say goodbye
But we won't forget the liberty and fortitude

Here today, gone tomorrow
We're saying our goodbyes
Drive away from the past

Here today, gone tomorrow
We're saying our goodbyes
Drive away from the past

Don't be sad, don't feel sorrow
The memories in our hearts
I won't forget

I won't forget
(It's in our hearts, it's in our hearts)
I won't forget
(It's in our hearts, it's in our hearts)

I won't forget
(It's in our hearts, it's in our hearts)
I won't forget
