I can't believe that I can be
Full of so much hate
Another hero dies, the devil lives
The people hide their shame

Lies were spoken, bonds were broken
Can he ever change?
Turn your back and run away as fast as you can
Don't mark your name

Every day she comes
That's what it takes
Add the heart to harm
And this for yourself
You shot the only thing you love

Lies were spoken, bonds were broken
Can he ever change?
Turn your back and run away as fast as you can
Don't mark your name

Sunshine turns to darkness everyday
The fragile far from honesty, losing faith

I can't believe, no sides in love
Guilty hearts can mend
I know myself, I've killed him
I'll do it again

Lies were spoken, bonds were broken
Can he ever change?
Turn your back and run away as fast as you can
Don't mark your name
