Soon as my heart breaks
Soon as my mind starts telling me
That i've had enough
That i've given all i've got to you
With nothing in return

Soon as my heart breaks
Soon as my soul stops aching for you
Then i'll be alright
Maybe i can sleep the night
Knowing that i'm free again

But how can i walk on knowing you're the only one i need
Can't you see me

Soon as my heart breaks
Soon as i hide the tears i cry
That you'll will never know
Holding back the side of me
That longs to leave but can't let go

And how can i move on knowing your love is the one i need
Can't you see m

Cause if my heart breaks
I'll have to find the strength
To say the words goodbye
Soon as my heart breaks
