Once again I look for you, but you are not there.
Sometimes I think that you might not care,

I just wish you could here me now,
Cause I am waiting for you.

Even though we might be oceans apart
Your still the one that's closest my heart
Even though this distance kills us inside
No one can ever say we didn't try
And still our hearts collide

Since you been gone I have felt so alone.
I can't help it help it but I am turning to stone

I just wish you could here me now
Cause I am waiting for you

Even though we might be oceans apart
Your still the one that's closest my heart
Even though this distance kills us incide
No one can ever say we didn't try
And still our hearts collide

Even though we might be oceans apart
Your still the one that's closest my heart
Even though you will be gone again
Know that I, will be waiting
