Light travels through the universe
It arrives, it remains
Things get better after things get worse
I feel the same, nothing's changed
Nothing's changed

Words unravel out of all of us
They arise, they refrain
Things get better after things get worse
I feel the same, nothing's changed

But there's no need to worry
Hello, hello, is anybody home?
But there's no need to worry
Hello, hello, see them come
See them go, see them go

Light travels through the universe
It arrives, it remains
Things get better after things get worse
I feel the same, nothing's changed

But there's no need to worry
Hello, hello, is anybody home?
But there's no need to worry
Hello, hello, see them come
See them go

But there's no need to worry
Hello, hello, is anybody home?
But there's no need to worry
Hello, hello, oh

Hello, hello
Hello, hello
Hello, hello, oh

Hello, hello
Hello, hello
Hello, hello, oh
Hello, hello
