Summer's gone, winter's in your eyes
I can feel the thunder storms inside
I wake every morning and the cold winds cover me
All I've got's a ghost of what could be

If you can see the lights shine in front of me
If you can see the lights shout out where you'll be

I'm in a broken dream, I stare out into space
You know I called you up 'cos nothing takes your place
I've got a heart of stone and it's sinking deep inside
I want to tell you, love, I'm too proud to cry

If you can see the lights shine in front of me
If you can see the lights shout out where you'll be
Summer's gone and I can't tell you lies
Oh, forgive me, love, I'm too proud to cry

If you can see the lights shine in front of me
If you can see the lights shout out where you'll be
Summer's gone and I can't tell you lies
Forgive me, love, I'm too proud to cry, too proud to cry
Too proud to cry, too proud to cry
