Voice leading to voices
Last song that the land sings
In colorful, breathless, emotional sea
Leaving us in this way

Seeing out the angel
From the shadows of a day
That stands alone and crying young

Singing fascination
For the twist in anxious days
That stand alone and crying young

Seeing out the angels
From the rescue pools of life
That stand alone and crying young

Rescue by the first light
Receiving us with these tears
Feeling your gaze in the back of my eyes
Leaving worlds this way

Seeing out the angel
From the shadows of a day
That stands alone and crying young

Singing fascination
For the twist in anxious days
That stand alone and crying young

Seeing out the angels
From the rescue pools of life
That stand alone and crying young

In voice leading to voices
Last song that the land sings
In colorful, breathless, emotional sea
Leaving us this way

Seeing out the angel
From the shadows of a day
That stands alone and crying young

Singing fascination
For the twist in anxious days
That stand alone and crying young

Seeing out the angels
From the rescue pools of life
That stand alone and crying young

Seeing out the angel
From the shadows of a day
That stands alone and crying young

Singing fascination
For the twist in anxious days
That stand alone and crying young

Seeing out the angels
