It's a long cold distance through the galaxies
If my eyes were open wide maybe I could see
If a burned out future seems like all that's in store
I'd tumble to ground like a fading meteor

Jeweller to the stars, jeweller to the stars
Jeweller to the stars, ah, ah
That's who you are, that's who you are

Ever been out walkin' where the air gets thin
Stranded on a planet losin' out on oxygen?
Scream out, "Listen" in a silent place
Feel that you're fallin', callin' into space

Oh, jeweller to the stars, jeweller to the stars
Jeweller to the stars, ah, ah
That's who you are, that's who you are
That's who you are

It's a long cold distance through the galaxies
My eyes were open wide, oh desolately
If a burned out future is what's in store
I'd tumble to the ground like a fading meteor

Oh, oh, oh, oh, jeweller to the stars, jeweller to the stars
Jeweller to the stars, ah, ah
That's who you are, that's who you are
Jeweller to the stars that's who you are Jeweller to the stars

Jeweller to the stars, jeweller to the stars
