"Walk now talk now"

About 2 o' clock
I left the party
I'd been drinkin' red wine
And talkin' hardy

So I walked to the bus stop
And looked over the city
Said hello to the man sittin' there
But he didn't hear me

So it's me and this stranger
Both tryin' to find a way home
Waitin' for a bus
That was never gonna come

So I said, "Did you have a good night
Tryin' to make some discussion?"
The man said, "What's your problem?"
I said, "Nothin'?"

'Cause I'm just walkin' now, talkin' now and livin' now
And you're just walkin' now, talkin' now and livin' now
In fact we're both walkin' now, talkin' now and livin' now
So just walk now, talk now and live now

It's gettin' half for three
And I'm gettin' lonely
I call out my baby
For some company

So we're lyin' there in bed talkin' about
Nothin' in particular
I was starin' at the ceilin'
And she was readin' Kamasutra

Then she sat up and said
"You know, our sex life is gettin' sort of circular?"
So I took her to the desk
And switched on the computer

And said, "We're gonna take a trip
Down the information super highway

But if you're gonna come with me
Then you've got to do it my way?

All it takes now is
One push of the button
She said, "What's your problem?"
I said, "Nothin'?"

'Cause I'm just walkin' now, talkin' now and livin' now
And you're just walkin' now, talkin' now and livin' now
In fact we're both walkin' now, talkin' now and livin' now
So just walk now, talk now and live now

It's around 4 o' clock
And I'm back at the party
They're still drinkin' red wine
And talkin' hardy

But now I've got a problem
Nobody wants to ask me what it is
They said that they would Only it's none of their business

And someone says
"What's your opinion on Russian animal welfare?"
I said, "That's the least of my problems
That's be quite frank I don't care"

And someone said
"You have a good night tryin' to make some discussion?"
I said, "What's your problem?"
He said, "Nothin'?"

I'm just walkin' now, talkin' now and livin' now
And you're just walkin' now, talkin' now and livin' now
In fact we're both walkin' now, talkin' now and livin' now
So just walk now, talk now and live now
