Well, well, well oh now
Have mercy

If I said you were evil
You'd knock me off my feet
If I said you're a good girl
You'd bore me off my seat

You'll never see me walking
Down a guilty middle class street
I'm frequently appalled
By them pretending to be poor men
Poor men, poor men

I'd give you all I can now
I don't have enough arms for you
Ask the people with the real cash
Institutions who are taking yours and mine

I won't feel guilty now
I won't feel bad
Yeah I won't feel guilty now
I won't feel bad

I won't feel guilty now
I won't feel bad
Well I don't feel guilty now
I won't feel bad

It's written in the books
In the literature that I've read
Temporary blindness
Breezing through the fog again

You'll never see me walking
Down a guilty middle class street
Yes I'm frequently appalled oh yes I am
By them pretending to be poor men
Poor men, poor men

I'd give you all I can might you know
I don't have enough arms for you did

Ask the people with the real cash
Institutions who are taking yours and mine

I won't feel guilty now
I won't feel bad
Yeah I won't feel guilty now
I won't feel bad

I won't feel guilty now
I won't feel bad
Well I don't feel guilty now
I won't feel bad

I never get enough of it, I never get enough
I wanna tell you now, I won't give up hey fix
Come on man oh now
Let her move on, let her move to life now

I won't feel bad
I won't feel bad

I won't feel bad
I won't feel bad
I hoo

Bad, bad, bad
