Lives and loves
Don't tell me about it
To respond to something permanent
You've got to be strong

Lives and loves
Only you know in your heart
How the pain felt
How the love made you melt

Me and you love
We have a way that seems to brighten up the day
We have our problems
Is the whole world asking, "Is it worth it?"

All the lovers in the world
Should they go on?
After all, they say
"You only live once"

Lives and loves
Only you know in your heart
How the pain felt
How the love made you melt

Me and you love
We have a way, that seems to brighten up the day
We have our problems
Is the whole world asking, "Is it worth it?"

All the lovers in the world
Should they go on
On and on and on

Lives and loves
Don't tell me about it
Someone always gets hurt in it
You've got to be strong

Yeah lives and loves
Only we know in our hearts
How the pain felt

Oh your love made me melt

Me and you love

We had a way that seemed to brighten up the day

We had our problems

Is the whole world asking, "Is it worth it?"

All the lovers in the world

Should they go on?

After all, they say

"You only live once"
