Hold my hand
Don't leave me here tonight

Theres a face
who is looking right back to me There's a wound
so deep...

There's a dream of a lost soul
And it chases me at night you will never understand...

There's a part of me i will be never able to see
There's this voice in my head again and again
When you laugh, i cry
And when you're sad, i smile

my Reflections...

There's a part of me i will be never able to see
There's this voice in my head again and again
When you laugh, i cry
And when you're sad, i smile

my Reflections...
