in plain sight
from your eyes
the rain is pouring down today helping me gather my fears and throw them all away you try and push me to the ground you think i wont get up watch me take you down
i have had enough

think there is
no fight
oh honey i have changed
watch me fight tonight

i'm standing here today
standing in the rain
washing your words away
looking at your face
and washing your words away
and hoping that one day
you'll have to do the same

you look at me
and all you see
is a target (is a target)
i look at you
and all you do
is laugh
and crack
another joke to your friends you think
i cant
do anything about it
you think
i cant
fight
back

no fight

standing in the rain

(guitar and drums)

i run at you
you run at me
this fight could be
your final destiny
you throw a punch
i'll knock you out
and when you are
finally on the ground
i'll laugh and say
"you thought i was nothing, look at you, now look at me"

and wash my words away
