I want to know, what's going on,
What is right, and what is wrong,
I don't believe, in all your lies,
Don't want to live with the consequence of a compromise...

The way you pray, it doesn't matter,
Living this way doesn't make me feel better,
I seek the truth, what have you done?
There must be more than your fing holy one...

There must be more,
Tell me the truth...

I... sacrifice... me...
For the answers...
And the longing for...
I... sacrifice... me...
For you... tonight...

The way you are, the way things turn,
For your believe, that came to slash and burn,
What we can do, to feel good,
Does not fulfill your so called holy word...

You talk about religious truth,
Nothing can prove, it would be of any use
If we exist, by any means...
Then I hope my life is just a dream...

Just a dream...

Believers and sinners
Are all the same...

I... sacrifice... me...
For the answers...
And the longing for...
I... sacrifice... me...
For you... tonight...
