My uncle had a beer gut
That weighed two hundred pounds
He used a wheelbarrow
To haul it into town

They treat him like a king
When he walks into Woody's bar
His beer gut pays for lights and heat
And Woody's brand new car

Nudsie got a beer gut
That gets bigger every year
Since Nudsie gave up lifting weights
And starting hoisting beers

He was lying on the beach one day
The sun kept getting hotter
Some save the whale, freaks came
And dragged him back into the water

Beer guts of America
Stand up if you can
Stick out your big beer gut
And hoist a cool one in your hand

Your beer gut is your buddy
It's a friend who's always near
And all you ever have to do
Is feed it lots of beer

Mungo drank a pony keg
At droopy Aho's wedding
His eyes went rolling round and round
And then he started sweating

He tripped on duck and fuzz
'Cause they were passed out on the floor
He landed on his beer gut
And he bounced right out the door

I took my date into the sauna
And on the bench we sat

She pointed and she said
?I never seen one big as that"

She held it and she stroked it
And she told me with a smile
Body builders make me sick
But beer guts drive me wild

Beer guts of America
Stand up if you can
Stick out your big beer gut
And hoist a cool one in your hand

Your beer gut is your buddy
It's a friend who's always near
And all you ever have to do
Is feed it lots of beer
