Are you looking at the world
From the same angle as me
Where did you go to?
What did you see?
And are you afraid now
Or is this the end of you fear
I dont know if you realise how much
Sadness is left in here
Youre in safe hands
No more pain inside
And I understand
Why you never said goodbye
But theres one thing I know
If you stumble, if you fall
Youre in safe hands
Youre high above, high above this storm
Words dont seem to say
The things I wanna say
Words will never get across
The way I feel today
Someone just take me
Im stripped, numb, Im bone
Someone just take me
Cos its not the same
When youre not there
Youre in safe hands
No more pain inside
And I understand
Why you never said goodbye
But theres one thing I know
If you stumble, if you fall
Youre in safe hands
Youre high above, high above this storm
This storm
Youre in safe hands
Theres no more pain inside
And I understand
Why you never said goodbye
But theres one thing I know
If you stumble, if you fall
Youre in safe hands
Youre high above, high above this storm
