Whats on your mind, a change of scenery?
Maybe thats why you've been so silent lately
You don't seem calm to me you haven't smiled in a week
You should take it easy we can talk it over

You have the right the right to know
You have the right the right to know

I see a light thats all that i can see
Maybe thats why you've been acting so distant lately
You are a friend to me
You can say anything you choose
Take it easy we can talk it over

You have the right the right to know
You have the right the right to know

If all this time you've been wanting all this right
To give you something more to get you feeling right
But you fake it too, we all do
But you fake it too, we all do

If i would of done the wrong things
Then i wouldn't be here
If i would of done the wrong things
Then i wouldn't be here

You have the right the right to know
You have the right the right to know

If all this time you've been wanting all this right
To give you something more to get you feeling right
But you fake it too, we all do
But you fake it too, we all do

ohh ohh ohh whoa oh
ohh ohh ohh whoa oh
