Is this less than what I can handle, or is this more than you deserve?
I bet you build me up this high just so I can crash a little harder
I wish you'd call me, you'd call me over there
I wish you'd come here on a start, wait
I can't wait another day
I wish you'd come here on a start

So this is less than what I can handle
And this is more than you, more than you deserve
I bet you build me up this high just so I can crash a little
harder
I wish you'd come here on a start, wait
I can't wait another day
I wish you'd come here on a start, I wish you'd come here on...

Well it will happen and again and again
Until it happens again
I bet it happens again and again and again
Until it happens again
