Storms of the Heretic Millenium

The Light... It Burns...

If ever you should need my life, come and take it

Drink my blood and live forever?

With this Necro-Blaspemic act...Invoke Thy NightSpirit.

We gladly feast on those who would Scour us

Welcome thy night, thy darkness, where One can do things

that aren't acceptable in the light.

Night, is when we Indulge our Inhibitions

While I thought that I was learning how to live,

I have been Moving towards Death itself.

Only Evil draws men together under the Shadows of the Holy Book.

To himself everyone is Immortal

Denying the knowledge of Mortal death...

but You will Realize you are Already dead.

Won't You Come In? I welcome you...

Into to the Crypt of the Damned!
