Transcending Dimensions

Feel the winds of ages past, frozen we march toward the sky we wait for a sign, facing a truth i could never deny journey ahead, through a path as old as death, miseries, and pain follow me as I transcend ,as you are now so once was I, as I am now you soon will be prepare to die and follow me close your eyes feel death embrace your putrid corpse from this bloodstained place alone your soul is withered cold confused in pain in frost and snow helpless to the random will of time, as if you had a hand in your worthless fate remains the guiding hand twisting reality toward the end
frost and snow
my time has come my flesh dries below my grave rotting the earth

a bitter wind rips at this barren world, silent and cold feeling my body ripped from my soul... transcending dimensions
no mortal lies, no worthless cries, slowly the light fades away from my eyes
dimensions
the path ahead is aeons long, a solemn end to a starless sky, a battle that none can ever win struck with a fear unsurpassed, a silence that could pierce your soul, unable to comprehend this end, as your ashes never were. Arise and transcend Death. i never knew my final day was here, that all i knew would disappear, if I could live another life, I would accept my dreaded fate!
