The word you learn to love the disapproval that you hate that's mother from mother They teach you to respect... makes you always want to please mother mother

The one who keeps you warm the one who keeps you warm and shelters you from harm and shelters you from harm watch out shell stunt your mind shell open up your mind til you emulate her kind to You good and make you kind is that mother? mother Downstairs I don't know downstairs I don't know if it's the springs in her bed why I feel safe in my bed or her joints I hear when I know Im alone creaking overhead she must be watching overhea Her mother

Shell twist the words you speak shell kiss and say goodbye if she thinks you're near escape if you want to go away mother mother So she clutches at her brood so she gathers up her brood and sits across it's face and smiles into their face she sucks up all it's energy she beams down vital energy and smothers their last breat Gave us out first breath oh mother mother

The thing you grow to hate the love you wont forget
