Resistance from your eyes
The eyes envy focus waiting for a fall
The distance that I'll walk
To keep the peace in a home full of faults

It's all the same
Who takes the blame
I'll take this pain away from you

Resistance from your taunts
A blood red finger strikes me down indecently
Just once, just once
Shut your mouth, sober up or you will lose

It's all the same
Who takes the blame
I'll take this pain away from you
And I'll walk away
With pride at stake
I'm strong enough to go on

Threefold
These things come in three
Threefold
