Do you really think it's fair
Telling me now you won't be there
Knowing every time you asked me
I never refused you
No I never refused
Am I wrong or do you care
For the moments that we share?
There were times you made me feel
I was being used
Am I being used?

You know your life is yours to command
Your destiny's in your hand
Go out and do what you're born to do
Oh you've got to be true, got to be, be true to you
To be true, you've got to be true to me
To be true, you've got to be true to you

So if you want to go (you go)
You know I won't say no (no, no)
Oh I love you so and I need to know
Will our love, will our love still grow?

We had a real good time (just you and me)
Loving like a crime (will you miss me?)
I know you can't be mine, but I need to know
Will our love, will our love still grow?

If you need some good advice
Call on me don't think twice
I didn't make it obvious
Deep down I cared, deep down I care
If you ever do decide
You want to be by my side
I will be more than happy to
Take you in my arms
I want you in my arms

You know your life is yours to command
Your destiny's in your hand
Go out and do what you're born to do

Oh you've got to be true, got to be, be true to you
To be true, you've got to be true to me
To be true, you've got to be true to you

So if you want to go (you go)
You know I won't say no (no, no)
Oh I love you so and I need to know
Will our love, will our love still grow?

We had real good time (you're breaking my heart)
Loving like a crime (now we're living apart)
I know you can't be mine, but I need to know
Will our love, will our love still grow?

So if you want to go (you go)
You know I won't say no (no, no)
Oh I love you so and I need to know
Will our love, will our love still grow?

Will our love, will our love, will our love grow?
Will our love, will our love, will our love grow?
Tell me will our love still grow?
