If you want to live with me
If you want to be my lover
If you want to have children
And want me to be their mother
Follow me to the skies, follow me to the skies
Follow me to the skies, where nobody lies

If you want to share my life
If you want to share tomorrow
If you want to know my joy
And a little bit of my sorrow
Follow me to the skies, follow me to the skies
Follow me to the skies, where nobody lies

Did you once believe in angels
And everybody talked to them
Did you once believe in Father Christmas
At every Noel?

Did you once believe that dreams came true
To those who did no wrong?

I believe, I believe, I believed and it didn't do me any wrong!
