

Days Of The New "Never Drown"

I am the dirt, the dust, the stain
The rust that's on your fingers
You're here I get inside your place
To hide the fear that lingers

If we never drown, we never know how well it tastes
So tell me how it tastes and I know just how well you drown

Keep in all the things that make you fall
Together we'll stand tall
In the end the choice will face us all
Together we'll fall so don't let go, yeah

We release the chains that cause you pain
And keeps your spirit locked down
If we never drown the walls
We found we'd never be our lesson

If we never drown, we never know how well it tastes
drown

Keep in all the things that make you fall
Together we'll stand tall
In the end the choice will face us all
Together we'll fall yeah
The end is near, a demon's jaw
The lives we swallow
In the end the choice will face us all
Together we'll fall
So don't let go 'cause I wanna know, I wanna know

Maybe it's the way
'Cause I'm not looking forward to running away, today,
yeah
Yeah maybe it's the way
'Cause I'm not looking forward to running away, today,
yeah yeah yeah

Keep in all the things that make you fall
Together we'll stand tall

The end is near, the lives we swallow
Are demon's jaw
In the end the choice will face us all
Together we'll fall, yeah
Keep in all the things that make you fall, yeah
Together we'll fall
So don't let go
