I won't break this, it took so long to make this
The life I lead is getting through to me
I won't take this, took so long to get rid of this
Anything is everything to me

What a step in time

Running after you
I don't know where you are
And I can't seem to get you
I want you to know me, yeah

The pain that greets me is a stick that beats me
Solid dream, hope isn't what it seems
Words I can't miss is a song that sings you
Missing friend, tomorrow is the end

What a step in time
Find my place in life

Running after you
I don't know where you are
And I can't seem to get you
I want you to know me

Running after you
I don't know where you are
And I can't seem to get you
I want you to know me yeah, alright

Anything is everything to me
Anything is everything to me, yeah yeah

Running after you
I don't know where you are
And I can't seem to get you
I want you to know me

Running after you
I don't know where you are
And I can't seem to get you
I want you to know me, yeah

Don't know where you are
I want you to know me
