Ever since the first time
Baby I laid eyes on you
You were like a light in darkness
You were, you were like my light
Oh baby come back
You were my very life
Now I've lost my grip on things
Oh baby I've lost my mind
I never give my heart away
I learned from that pain long ago
But somehow you've reached into me
Exposed to you, I can't run away
Oh baby come back
You were my very life
Now I've lost my grip on things
Oh baby I have lost my mind
Every night I lay down dreaming

And I feel you near me
Then I awake and find you've gone away
And I miss you
I miss you
It was very hard for me
To see you with another guy
And as you walked away from him
You smiled at me
You said next in line
Oh baby come back
You stole my very heart
And now that you have gone away
I find it hard to make a new start
Oh baby come back
You were my very life
Now I've lost my grip on things
Oh baby I have lost my mind
