I walk at night, baby, by the rivers edge Something came out of the water, grabbed me by the leg
And I'm feeling hard, baby I'm feeling hard
Nobody came around, now, to save me
When I started to drown
People came to the side of the water
To watch me going down
And I'm reaching up now, baby, trying to grab a hand
And I'm reaching up now, baby, and I pray that somebody saves me
And you know now, babe, I'm feeling all alone
Oh, oh, I'd sure like to go back home
Are waiting for me baby, in the sand
Or do you got another man?
Oh, now, I sure wonder baby...
You know it drives me crazy
I watch the children in a burning boat
Like a death parade, I watch the little bodies float

And I'm reaching up, baby, baby trying to grab a hand
I'm reaching up, baby, I pray that somebody saves me
And you know now, babe, I'm feeling all alone
Oh, oh, I'd sure like to go back home
Are waiting for me baby, in the sand
Or do you got another man?
Oh, now, I sure wonder baby...
You know it drives me crazy
Oh, no, baby, that thought sure drives me crazy
Oh, no, baby, I feel crazy
And you know now, babe, I'm feeling all alone
Oh, oh, I'd sure like to go back home
Are waiting for me baby, in the sand
Or do you got another man?
Oh, now, I sure wonder baby...
You know it drives me crazy
Can you save me...
