If you lead when you're standing
Every where you'd go you will bleed where you land and
Everyone will know
When you need a hand and surely you will know
It was me who was standing and filling for your show

'Cause I been seeing you and me in a space that can only grow
'Cause everyone knows

I gave you everything
You got the best of me
But hey hey what a shame
I was the only one

Who didn't know what you had done
So hey hey what a shame
'Cause all you ever do is blame

If you fall for illusions
Pause it on the frame
You can draw the conclusion
That everyone's the same
I was a fool from the get go
And you would think I'd see
All the things I should let go
And things that I don't need anymore

[Pre Chorus]
[Chorus x3]
