"Vacation Rain"

I shut my eyes and it all comes racing in Every time it rains, I can feel you on my skin
A storm of chance, when fate was hard to find
Seven days that we left behind
Everything we were, everything underneath the sun
The waves kept crashin', and a storm had just begun
Forces colliding to one moment in time
For seven days, when it rained you'd shine

[chorus]

Remember the nights,
Remember the days,
Remember the vacation rain,
Remember the way life used to taste,
Remember the vacation rain- rain- rain -rain

The earth was shaking, and the ground was getting wet
The time we were taking, I never will forget
Summer winds were changing and coming to an end
Seven days we'd never see again

[chorus]

Don't it take you back like a photograph
Hangin in your mind frame
Every now and then I wanna feel that way again
For seven days

[chorus]

The crash of the waves that we felt break
Remember the vacation rain-rain-rain
