Broke the ring around it
And I can't think about it.
I can barely start to even
Wrap my head around it.

Waters rise around us,
Sinking ships surround us.
I can't believe she even found
A way inside to drown us.

I'm not so sure anymore what's next
Or if there's anything left for us.
What will we find inside of the wreck?
Yeah, we both know, it's all just washed away.

Where do you go and what do you do,
When all you have left is hanging on you?
Where do you go and what do you do,
When you lose everything, you ever knew?

Shine a light into it,
Shoot a canon through it,
Spill it all and hope you find
A way to make it through it.

Cause down is up and up is down
And love lies dying all on the ground.
You find a line that's in the sand
And figure out who drew it.

I'm not quite sure anymore what's next
Or if there's anything left for us.
What will we find inside of the wreck?
Yeah we both know it's all just washed away.

Where do you go, and what do you do,
When all you have left is hanging on you?
Where do you go, and what do you do,
When you lose everything?

Broke the ring around it.
And I can't think about it.

I can barely start to even
Wrap my head around it.

Cause down is up and up is down
And love lies dying all on the ground.
You find the line that's in the sand
And figure out who drew it.

Where do you go, and what do you do,
When all you have left is hanging on you?
Where do you go, and what do you do,
When you lose everything, you ever knew?

Where do you go, and what do you do,
When all that you have's been taken from you?
Where do you go? What do you do,
When you lose everything...
