In the navy
In the navy
Every navy mans the right guy
Everyone gives him the bright eye
And the navy they do right by

To a sailor
To a sailor
All the world is just his main street
When you're in the navy
You're in the worlds best gleam

First you take your training as a boot
Swing a hammock navigate & shoot
Jump open ships & subs & planes
The seven seas are open lane

When the bow is down with Davy Jones
Folks will welcome home their rolling stones
For every navy mans a king
And you'll hear everybody sing

Here comes the navy
Break out the red, white & blue
Here comes the navy
Fighting & sea going through
Make way for navy
Navy with anchors aweigh
Everybody loves the navy of the USA

First you take your training as a boot
Swing a hammock & navigate & shoot
Jump open ships & in subs & in planes
The seven seas are open lane

Here it comes, here it comes, here comes the navy
Sing a song of good cheer because the navy is here
Everybody loves the navy of the USA
