They keep playing sad songs on the radio
And I feel like I'm so alone
On this 15 hour drive
And all awhile I tell my self to just believe
Cause nobody can give so much
And never get anything
(Never get anything)

Everyone I use to know
Says they don't know what I've become
But I'm still the same
Not much has changed
I still know where I came from

I fell asleep with the lights on
And I can see that you're the first one in a long time.
That had some faith in me
(Have faith in me)
Tell my friends we wont be long
The Florida sun begs me to come back home
It feels like I'm ready for anything
If you can wait for me.

And all the while I say to much of what I think
And I can't remember what it's like to find meaning in anything
For the life of me
Everyone I use to know
Says they don't know what I've become
But I'm still the same
Not much has changed
I still know where I came from

All I've ever wanted was so far from what I need
I'll write my songs they'll sing along I hope time heals everything

I fell asleep with the lights on
And I can see that you're the first one in a long time.
That had some faith in me
(Have faith in me)
Tell my friends we wont be long

The Florida sun begs me to come back home
It feels like I'm ready for anything
If you can wait for me.

This is all I have!
This is all I have!
It's my life
This is all I have!
This is all I have!

I fell asleep with the lights on
And I can see that you're the first one in a long time.
That had some faith in me
(Have faith in me)
Tell my friends we wont be long
The Florida sun begs me to come back home
It feels like I'm ready for anything
If you can wait for me.
