I went to sleep thinking about you
And I woke up just the same
You made it so hard for me to close my eyes Don't worry babe, this will be alright in the end
And I'll be your everything

So we'll both tell ourselves that this for the best
But I'm depending on you to lead me through
So try to stop those hands, you're riding down my neck
You touch, I tremble, you never were one to play fair

These past four walls won't be the only thing that's keeping me from you
This distance could never hold this back (I need you)
So let's just take this time and we'll use this for reflection
And I'll see you in three days
And you'll think of me when you're next to him

Don't mind my gasp, it's so much harder to breathe when you're near
You made it so hard for me to learn through my eyes Don't mind me asking but could I trouble you, Miss, for a smile?
Just give me one last wish with a kiss It's what my dreams are made of

So we'll both tell ourselves that this for the best
But I'm depending on you to lead me through
So try to stop those hands, you're riding down my neck
You touch, I tremble, you never were one to play fair

These past four walls won't be the only thing that's
keeping me from you
This distance could never hold this back (I need you)
So let's just take this time and we'll use this for
reflection
And I'll see you in three days
And you'll think of me when you're next to him

So here we are, again, in the same situation I'm screaming at the top of my lungs, and you're not saying a word

Did you just say what you mean?
Why can't you can't you just mean what you said
When you said "No one can love you like me"?

These past four walls won't be the only thing that's
keeping me from you
This distance could never hold this back (I need you)
So let's just take this time and we'll use this for
reflection
And I'll see you in three days
And you'll think of me when you're next to him

(We could have been beautiful)
