(first part: lyrics not in english)

I have crossed a thousand bridges
In my search for something real
There were great suspension bridges
Made of spiderwebs of steel

There were tiny wooden trestles
And there were bridges made of stone
I have always been a stranger
And Iâ€™ve always been alone

Thereâ€™s a bridge to tomorrow
Thereâ€™s a bridge from the past
Thereâ€™s a bridge made of sorrow(?)
That I pray would not last Thereâ€™s a bridge made of colors

In the sky high above
And Iâ€™m certain that somewhere
Thereâ€™s a Bridge made of love
Lalalaâ€¦
(repeat from 1st and 2nd stanza)
